MARION COLLEGE NOTES.

One of the most interesting events of the week was the Pastoral Association Luncheon on Thursday which was prepared and served entirely by the Domestic Science Department under the supervision of the teacher, Miss Mable Smith. The following menu was served, every course being delicious in itself and the whole being an exemplification of the practical possibilities of the Department.

MENU

Grape Fruit Cocktail
Roast chicken Creamed Potatoes,
Peas, Baked Apples
Celery, Pickles, Hot rolls,
Frozen Salad, Wafers,
Raspberry-Short Cake,
Coffee Mints.

The guests were the Reverends W. R. Brown, J. H. Richards, J. L. Smith, W. G. Cobb, E. H. Copenhaver, P. J. Shealy, S. C. Ballentine, C. J. Rice, and C. B. Cox.

Mr. J. A. Caudle made the chapel address last Thursday morning. He gave some startling statistics as to the need for educational and evangelistic work at home. His statement that within a radius of ten miles around Marion (not including the corporate limits of the town) he has found 700 persons not belonging to any church, seemed beyond the limits of credibility. But he knows from pains taking visitation and carefully acquired statistics, just what he says. Much interest was expressed by the students and many of them professed themselves eager to have a part in any plans which President Cox may work out for doing extension work outside of school hours.

An interesting address was made on Friday morning by Miss Segesworth, Secretary of the Student Volunteer Association.

Miss Eloise Kerrick, teacher of Violin, and Miss Josephine Anderson of the Senior Class gave several of the most delightful numbers in the Musical at the Presbyterian church.

The Junior Class entertained the Seniors with a series of delightful surprises on Saturday night in the Tower Room. The refreshments were elaborate and were served with unusual attractiveness.

A number of the members of the Senior Class have been offered attractive positions for next year. It seems that the proportion of teachers in this class is to be unusually large.

Odd Fellows Service.

There will be an Odd Fellow Service preached at the Wharf Hill Methodist Church, 2nd Sunday in May, at 3 o'clock P. M. All Odd Fellows are requested to attend. Train service will run from Marion, leaving on Sunday, at 1 o'clock.

MEETING OF W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. M. M. Seaver Friday evening April 28th. A very interesting meeting was held. Mrs. E. H. Copenhaver presiding. We had the honor and very great pleasure of the presence of our County President, Miss Mary Bonham, of Chilhowie, who made a very interesting talk and also read a letter from Mrs. Hage, telling her of a plan to hold an institute and have a state speaker at an early date. A committee of ladies were appointed to confer with the local pastors in regard to this, namely: Mrs. J. H. Rouse, Mrs. A. P. Pickle, Mrs. M. M. Seaver. After devotional exercises and business matters attended to, the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Near East Relief Work.

On Sunday morning a collection amounting to $100.00 was taken in the Royal Oak Presbyterian Sunday School to aid in relief work among the starving and destitute Christians in Armenia. The tragedy of the Near East situation and the suffering of this band of our brothers in Christ cannot be exaggerated. The Turks have driven a large part of the remnant left from repeated massacres into wilderness and desert. Where it is possible to cultivate the land, seed is lacking for the spring sowing. The old and infirm and the little children are dying from starvation, and unless help is sent, destitution and disease will finish the life history of the Christian church in Armenia. Can we in this favored land enjoy the plenty surrounding us, and be unmindful of these destitute people who, because of their allegiance to our common Lord and Savior, are the victims of Turkish persecutions. A liberal collection should be taken for this cause in every Church or Sunday School in the county. Mr. T. E. King is Treasurer of this work in Smyth County and will receive the contributions and forward them to Oliver J. Sands of Richmond who has charge of the Near East Relief Work in Virginia.

When The Law Was First Enacted.

The Honorable Richard M. Martin M. P. in 1822, succeeded in having the first law for the prevention of cruelty to animals set upon the statute books of England. I do not know what that law was, enacted 100 years ago but the present law in Virginia is published below for the benefit of those who do not know that there is such a law and also as a warning to those who deliberately violate it. Whether there is any society for the prevention of cruelty or not it is the duty of any town sergeant or policeman to enforce the law where he sees it violated, or to take out a warrant on complaint made to him.

Section 4554 Cruelty to Animals.

Any person who over rides, over drives, over loads, tortures, ill treats or cruelly or unnecessarily beats maims, mutilates, or kills any animal whether belonging to himself or deprives any animal of necessary sustenance or food or drink or causes any of the above things, or being the owner of such animal permits such acts to be done by another or who wilfully sets on foot, instigates, engages in, or in any way furthers any act of cruelty to any animal, or who shall carry or cause to be carried in or upon any vehicle or vessel or otherwise, any animal in a cruel brutal or inhuman manner, so as to produce torture or unnecessary suffering, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; but nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the dehorning of cattle.

Senator New Says He Has a Big Lead.

Wires Will Hays That He Will Defeat Beveridge By At Least 20,000 Votes

Indianapolis, May 2.—United States Senator Harry S. New, candidate for the Republican renomination in today's Indiana primaries, declared tonight he would defeat Albert J. Beveridge, his opponent by 20,000 votes. This claim was made in a telegram sent to Will H. Hays, former chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 2.—Returns from 215 of the 3382 precincts in Indiana gave New 11,669 against 11,208 for Beveridge in the state wide primary race for the Republican nomination as United States Senator. The vote came from 35 counties.

Indianapolis Ind., May 2.—When the first fifty of 3382 precincts had reported, Senator New had received 2661 votes against 2450 for Albert J. Beveridge in the Republican contest for the nomination as United States Senator. The returns were scattered among 13 counties, including one precinct in Marion county, (Indianapolis.) In the contest for the Democratic Senatorial nomination, Samuel M. Kalston, former governor, got away with a big lead in 38 of the 3382 precincts in the state.

Mr. J. M. Brisco returned Sunday from a trip of several days to Lynchburg. Mr. Brisco stopped in Roanoke on his way home and attended the Shriner's Ceremonial.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORS ENGAGED IN FILIBUSTER

The Democratic minority in the United States is engaged in a deliberate filibuster to prevent the Senate majority from passing a tariff law in accordance with the Republican platform pledge to the people.

In resorting to dilatory tactics the Democratic senators are resisting majority opinion not only in the Senate but among the voters of the country, who by about a two-thirds vote put into power a party pledged to the protective policy.

Senator Simmons of North Carolina, compelled the reading aloud by the Senate of the 440 page tariff bill, a printed copy of which was in the hands of senators, and which is to be taken up item by item. This was palpably for the purpose of procuring delay in consideration of the measure. Minority senators are making long speeches, dilatory motions and indulging in other obstructive tactics, all for the purpose of preventing the enactment of a tariff law by the Senate majority.

There has already been far too much delay in the Senate in the formulation of a tariff measure. For many months following the prompt passage by the House of a tariff law in accordance with the Republican platform pledge ten months ago, the matter has dragged along in the upper house of Congress. Now there is to be as much more delay as obstructive tactics can make possible to the Senate Democrats.

The existence of rules which prevent legislation by a majority, and sanction such farcical proceedings as mere talking and maneuvering for delay by members of a legislative body paid by the people to legislate and not filibuster against majority rule, is a reproach to the Senate. Any system whereby a minority can prevent a majority from legislating within a reasonable time, represents tyranny and special privilege entirely out of harmony with republican institutions.

If the Senate minority continues to talk against time and to resort to prevent progress in consideration of the tariff bill, it will be the duty of the Senate majority to apply closure and suspend the rules. The interests of a hundred million Americans ought not be sacrificed in order to enable Democratic senators to prevent government from functioning, and to enable alien interests and importers to flourish through the destruction of American industry and employment.

Basket Dinner and Moving Pictures.

The first of a series of Community Life Gatherings to be held in the county during the month of May, will be held at Lansdown School House on the 19th of this month.

The program will consist of a morning and an afternoon session when notable men and women will speak on various topics bearing up on rural community life.

Dinner on the grounds is always an attractive feature at a community meeting, and at Lansdown, under the direction of the good housewives of the neighborhood, Virginia hospitality may be seen at its best.

The object of the meeting is a full and free discussion of the problems of the rural community, and everybody is invited to attend this all day conference.

A moving picture machine, with a number of films will be installed ready for use as a part of the program. Everybody take a holiday on the 19 and go to Lansdown.

A musical made up by some of the best talent in Marion, was given in the Royal Oak Presbyterian church, last Tuesday night, under the direction, of Mrs. John P. Buchanan, for the benefit of Christ Episcopal church of Marion.

The recital was made up of selections of the most difficult forms of composition and each selection was ably presented by those on the program, all of whom are artists in music. Those performing were: Mrs. John P. Buchanan, Pipe Organ and Piano; Miss Eloise Kerrick, Violin; Misses Josephine Anderson and Sena Bryant, Vocal Soloists, and Mrs. John P. Saul, Jr., of Salem, a skilled musician, who rendered selections on the piano, in a manner worthy of commendation.

COX'S CLAP-TRAP.

In an address before the National Democratic Club in New York former Gov. James M. Cox, in urging a continuation of the campaign to have this country join the league of nations, grows despondent over the return of prosperity unless his recipe is accepted. He implies that, in his opinion, a great mistake was made by the voters in the last election. "In the calm review of history," he says, "the period and events in question will be referred to as the madness of 1920." If we had lifted our voice for international cooperation, we would today be prosperous. As one surveys conditions at Washington he finds little ground for hope of stable prosperity. It is a rather gloomy picture he paints, but then who would deny him the boon? If anyone ever had cause for feeling hopeless he has and if he sees a somber future, let him go to it. He was the madness of 1920, and he has not recovered.

There might have been point to his utterances had he cited the prosperity which prevails in the nations in the league. That tying themselves in this organization has not removed industrial troubles, is of course, well known, nor would it have solved the problem had the United States become a member. No league would have removed the debts, readjusted the industries or have eliminated the hates and recriminations of Europe. In fact Cox's utterances are the merest clap-trap and are worthy of notice only because he was the last Democratic candidate for President. His unfitness for such an honor is again demonstrated. That the right kind of a league would have a beneficial effect in some lines is admitted, but no league which could be devised will of itself restore prosperity. That will be accomplished only by individuals collectively going to work to produce something that the world needs and produce it at a price that the world can pay.—Pittsburg Gazette.

Death of a Little Child.

Junior Herschel, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Williams, born April 9th, 1921, died April 6th 1922, being 11 months and 28 days of age.

He was ill six weeks and suffered severely all the time, but bore his suffering well. He never gave up until death claimed him.

He was in the hospital at Beckley, W. Va., 5 days and underwent an operation. Pneumonia and meningitis set up and he only lived nine hours. He was a bright child and was always healthy until six weeks before his death.

We know not why the little darling was taken, but God knows best, and does all things well. While we are lonesome without him, yet we have only loaned him to Jesus for a short time. Jesus just lifted him up and set him over on the other side, so we could follow.

He leaves a father, mother and one brother to mourn his loss. The remains were brought from Beckley, W. Va., to Atkins on No. 37 and taken to his grand parents where services were conducted by Rev. Hall and afterwards taken to the Wassum Cemetery where the burial services were held.

Marion Girl Honored.

The following complimentary notice of one of our Marion girls who is a student at Agnes Scott College, appeared in the Atlanta Journal last Sunday.

The Southeastern Intercollegiate Student Government association convened last week in New Orleans. It is of special interest to friends of Agnes Scott to know that Miss Nelle Buchanan, widely known as one of that college's victorious debaters for two years, is president of this intercollegiate association. Miss Buchanan is president of student government in her own college this year, also. This is the greatest honor that can be conferred upon a student.

Miss Buchanan has proved herself in every way worthy of the responsibility put upon her. She has upheld the highest ideals of the honor system with such unfeigned fidelity that the entire college community accords her their love and admiration.

THE WILSON RECORD ON CIVIL SERVICE.

Woodrow Wilson was at one time President of the National Civil Service Reform League, the organization which always fills the air with lamentation whenever a deserving Democrat is separated from the public payroll. When he became President Mr. Wilson performed more feats in spoilsmanship than could be attributed to all of his predecessors combined in a third of a century.

It will be recalled that President Taft put the civil service blanket over the fourth class postoffices, which there are about 35,000 in the country. When President Wilson took his seat he made a pretense of retaining the civil service blanket, but ordered new examinations which the result that at the close of his administration 28,000 of the 35,000 postmasters of this class were deserving Democrats, chosen for political reasons.

When President Wilson took his seat rural carriers were under civil service rules, but by hook and crook, mostly crook, President Wilson's administration managed to displace nearly all of these carriers with deserving Democrats.

In 1916 the National Civil Service Reform League asked permission to inspect the records of the Civil Service Commission, in order to test the truth of charges that the civil service law was being ignored in the appointment of postal officials supposed to be under the civil service rules. President Wilson's commission refused to grant this permission. A little later the Civil Service Commission was not assisting Postmaster General Burleson in saving the Post-office department for Democracy to his complete satisfaction, so President Wilson "fired" the whole commission and filled the vacancies thus created with more pliant creatures of the administration.

The postoffice inspection service was supposed to be under civil service rules when President Wilson came in. Nevertheless he discharged many hundreds of Republicans post-office inspectors and filled their places with deserving Democrats.

When Secretary Bryan took charge of the State department he made no concealment of the fact that he considered all diplomatic and consular positions party spoils and wrote a letter, which was made public, in which he bluntly declared that he was making vacancies for "deserving Democrats."

First, second and third class post-offices were, of course, filled with no pretence that civil service reform principles were being observed.

Now we are told that if the job holders who received appointments as the result of this system of handling the civil service, are displaced, a great outrage will have been committed against the "merit system." Those who are most loudly proclaiming this doctrine are Democratic and independent politicians who did not utter a syllable of protest while President Wilson was handing out jobs by the thousand to his henchmen.

Naturally the public is inclined to be skeptical as to honesty of the "reformers" who looked on approvingly while an ex-president of the National Civil Service Reform League "guttered" the civil service for the benefit of deserving Democrats, but who are now fearful that some Republican may get recognition at the hands of a Republican administration!

What Have You Done For Your Neighbor.

What particular use are you to your town, to your particular neighborhood?

How have you benefited the section in which you live?

Your life may be respectable and you may keep your premises attractive. These are things you are expected to do, any good citizen does.

As a matter of fact you live as you should because you want the respect of everybody, yourself included, but you keep your premises spic and span because of the pride and satisfaction they give you. You think that keeping your surroundings up is a personal matter, but it not only benefits you personally but all who live near you, in fact all who must pass your door, and the town at large.

To have a prosperous town there must be citizens with pride for civic appearance as well as moral char-

How about that word of cheer you might have spoken to the one who lives near and who was in trouble? Did you give it?

What have you done for your neighborhood?

The people of this community consider themselves fortunate in being given a nine month's school, which is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Minnie Rouse. The enrollment has reached fifty four and the people are showing their appreciation of their school by keeping their children in school regularly. The new building which has been painted outside and inside, the floors filled and the proper furnishings speak well for the school, and the co-operation of the patrons and school board. Recently the Civic League has furnished adjustable window shades. At this time a well is being dug for the school. We are greatly indebted to Mr. C. C. Lincoln of Marion for the donation of the school ground. He is lauded for his liberality and the people of this community want a share in praising his liberality.

Mr. John Richardson and family of Marion were the Sunday guests of Mr. W. B. Williams.

Boy Tells Father, Caught at Still not to Resist.

Hampton, Va.—"Dad, the man's got you 'rested, and you might as well go 'long with him," said the nine year old son of William Gentry yesterday evening up in Warwick county when Gentry, nabbed by officers on a still-running charge, declined to accompany them to the city.

The boy was at the still with his father when officers espied them, it was stated. Advice from his young son had a splendid effect on the man, officers said. He gave no further trouble.

Cooperation Between President and Congress

Citation of Record of Legislation Refutes Charges of "Do Nothing" Congress and Shows Completion of Well Defined Program

U. S. REPRESENTATIVE FRANK MONDELL (WYOMING), REPUBLICAN FLOOR LEADER

When the newly elected Republican Congress was convened in special session April 13, 1921, the nation was still legally at war with the Central Powers of Europe and the domestic problems confronting the country were of greater magnitude than any previous administration in the history of the United States had ever been called upon to solve.

The President and the Congress had a well-defined program of rehabilitation and reconstruction. In his address opening the special session of Congress the President asked the passage of a resolution declaring a state of peace between the United States and the Central Powers. He urged, in addition, the enactment of an emergency tariff, a permanent tariff, the creation of a budget system; legislation providing relief to agricultural interests; federal aid to public highways; a new tax law which would lessen the burden of public taxation and eliminate excess profits taxes; a consolidation of the various government agencies handling relief for ex-service men; a maternity and infancy welfare law; a law to punish lynching by federal statute; encouragement for and regulation of cable and radio service; and, above all else, rigid economy in appropriations for the operating expenses of the Government.

The best and the conclusive answer as to whether or not the Republican Congress has co-operated with the Republican President in carrying out the program is the citation of the record of accomplished acts. The Emergency Tariff was a law May 27. The resolution terminating a state of war between the United States and the Central Powers was in full force and effect July 2. The Budget Law was in force and effect June 10, in time to apply to the new fiscal year beginning July 1. The Sweet Bill to co-ordinate all agencies dealing with ex-service men was a law by August 9.

In order to assist the agricultural interests the Congress amended the War Finance Corporation Act, which provided a round billion dollars of new credit for agricultural and live-stock interests; passed the Packers and Stockyards Act, the Capper-Tincher Act to regulate grain exchanges and the Nelson-Curtis Act, which increased the funds available for farm loans in the sum of $25,000,000.

It enacted the Maternity and Infancy Welfare Act. It appropriated

$75,000,000 for federal aid in building of public highways. It enacted a law for the protection of American owned cable and radio service. It enacted a new tax measure, which reduces the public taxation for the current year in the sum of $813,000,000, the bulk of which is saved to the man of medium income.

In addition to enacting the Budget Law creating the Budget Bureau, under which all economies which have been made by executive departments were made possible, the Congress, upon its own initiative, cut over $300,000,000 from appropriations requested by various departments and boards, thus carrying out the President's desire for rigid economy.

In addition to carrying out the President's program it enacted a restrictive immigration law. It amended the Edge Act in order to facilitate America's foreign trade. It reorganized the Philippine financial system in order to save the islands from bankruptcy as a result of maladministration under the Wilson regime. It reorganized the Indian Bureau and reorganized the Postal Service and readjusted salaries in that department. In fulfillment of the President's request, the House passed a permanent tariff measure—the Fordney Bill. The House also passed the Dyer Bill, which makes lynching a federal offense and provides for federal punishment of that crime.

In his annual message to Congress in December, the President made supplementary recommendations, among them being the enactment of a co-operative marketing law; the appropriation of funds to relieve the famine in Russia; the creation of a commission to handle the refunding of our foreign loans; and the enactment of legislation to stop the issuance of tax-exempt securities.

Every one of these recommendations has been enacted into law with the exception of the one regarding the issuance of non-taxable securities and a bill to carry that recommendation into effect is now well on its way through Congress.

This record shows that the House co-operated with the President exactly 100 per cent. In enacting such legislation as he recommended—a record of co-operation between the executive and legislative branches of Congress which has no equal in the annals of American legislation.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do just work. I was almost dead. I tried everything I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I am sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. E 55

Smyth County Farmers Buy Purebred Bulls.

Ten purebred bulls, were bought by farmers of this County, at the sale held on the Fair Grounds, Marion, April 15th. Most of the animals were consigned by the Smyth County Live-Stock Association, which organization is now assisting farmers, who wish to replace grade and scrub animals with purebreds, by loaning money, at 4% interest, for the purchase of better bulls. Also, the Marion National Bank, realizing the need for better beef cattle in this great grazing section, is advancing money for the same purpose, at 2% interest for six months. With these liberal offers, there should not be a single scrub bull left in Smyth County.

The following is a list of the men purchasing purebred bulls at the sale: C. F. Thomas, Marion, Va.; K.

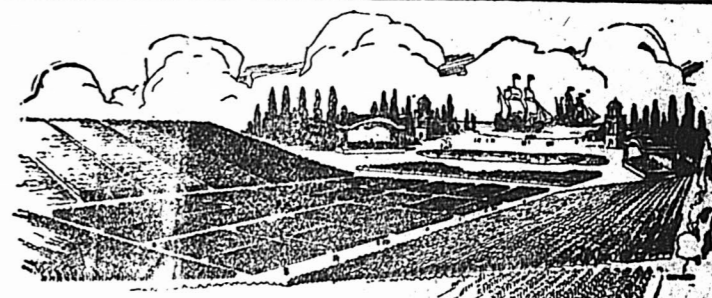

Killinger, Marion, Va.; County Farm, Marion, Va.; Robert Bowman, Marion, Va.; R. C. Wilkinson, Chilhowie, Va.; D. D. Cole, Chilhowie, Va.; W. H. Rosenbaum, 7 Mile Ford, Va.; Walter Brooks, 7 Mile Ford, Va.; A. T. Slomp, Sugar Grove, Va.; D. E. Ernest, Sugar Grove, Va.

Bidding was snappy throughout the sale and the entire offering sold at prices fair to both buyer and seller.

Farmers who are in need of good bulls should plan now to attend the sale to be held on the Fair Grounds, Marion, Saturday, May 13th at 1:30 P. M. Twelve young bulls of as good quality as can be secured in Southwest Virginia will be offered at public auction at this time. It will pay you to attend this sale to see the animals offered. It will pay you better to purchase one of them. Remember the date, May 13th, at 1:30 P. M.

A series of great moments in the history of the State RICHMOND May 22 to 28
